Generation.

I am little concerned with beauty or perfection. I don't care for the great centuries. All I care about is life, struggle, intensity. I am at ease in my generation.

Your only obligation in any lifetime is to be true to yourself.

You are led through your lifetime by the inner yearning
creature, the playful

your real self

What is life? A madness. What is life?
An illusion, a shadow, a story And the greatest good is little enough: for all life is a dream, and dreams themselves are only dreams

Remember where you came from,
where you are going, and why you created the mess you got yourself into in the first place.

Promoting School Spirit

As a member of the Student Government, I have the honor to represent the students of our school. One of our main goals is to promote school spirit and create a positive environment for all students. We will be organizing various events and activities throughout the year to foster a sense of unity and pride in our school.

Clubs . . .

There are many clubs and organizations at our school. Some of the most popular ones are the Student Council, the Glee Club, the Chess Team, and the Debate Team. The Student Council is made up of students who represent the entire school. They help the principal and the teachers with school activities. The Glee Club is a group of students who sing and perform songs. They often perform at school events and in the community. The Chess Team is a group of students who play chess. They compete with other schools in chess tournaments. The Debate Team is a group of students who debate on various topics. They compete in debate tournaments and help students learn how to argue their points effectively.

Performing With Excellence

The LHS music department had another strong year, perpetuating its fine reputation. With concerts, competitions, and special events, all areas of the department were busy and performed hard.

In past years the Jazz Band really felt the crunch of declining enrollment. This year, however, their talents were brought together to make an outstanding and truly powerful band.

Concert and Symphonic Band, probably the most active group, participated in many events, such as the annual Winter and Spring Festivals, CMEA Festival, the graduation ceremony, and the Rodeo parade. The bands were also gifted with four excellent soloists: Ken Taylor, Aline Tewes, Steve Streufert, and Frances Zizzo.

Orchestra, directed by Bob Jacobson, continued to be a very strong group. With many returning seniors, the ensemble also had a lot of add finesse to any performance.

A Cappella, noted for their fine singing, continued the tradition this year. Lending both experience and support were a choice

New People

The drama club has been a part of our school for many years. It provides a great opportunity for students to express their creativity and talent. This year, we have a variety of plays and performances planned. We hope to see many of our members on stage and in front of the camera. The club is open to all students who are interested in acting and drama. We meet every week to practice and rehearse. It's a fun and rewarding experience that helps build confidence and teamwork. We look forward to a successful year of drama!

The drama club is a great way for students to learn about theater and acting. It's a chance to work with others and create something together. We have a lot of fun and learn a lot from our experiences. The club is a great place to be if you love drama and want to improve your skills. We have many talented members who are passionate about their craft. We hope to continue to grow and improve over the years. The drama club is a valuable part of our school community and we are proud to have it. We look forward to many more years of drama and performance.

Accepting the Challenge

Accepting the challenge of a new task or situation is a crucial part of personal growth. It involves stepping out of your comfort zone and embracing the unknown. This process often requires a combination of courage, resilience, and a willingness to learn from failure. By accepting the challenge, you open yourself up to new opportunities and experiences that can shape your future.

For the first time in recent history, the yearbookers have covered a wide variety of locations. Japan, the alley, the football field, even the land of short people. They managed to overcome their inexperience in both photography and staff. Under the watchful eye of advisor Pat Gregora, they were able to interest and include many people in the yearbook.

Counting Down The Days

Until showtime, the performers of the 1982 Aquacade show spent hours of practice perfecting their routines as the days quickly flew by. Clinics and tryouts began in February, but the mild winter weather did not affect the dedicated women who put their imagination into several routines. The show was a tremendous success as it was performed on the weekend of March 31-April 2 and followed the theme of "Rockin' Through the Ages."

The seniors, led by Judy Schweiger, swam to Olivia Newton John's

"Make A Move On Me" while the juniors showed their stuff to the J. Geils Band's "Centerfold" instructed by Judy Thompson and Amy Moore. The sophomores, guided by Angie Terhune and Holly Campuzano, combined swimming with dance to "Octopus Garden" and the freshmen, led by Lee Clausen, showed school spirit performing to the Beach Boys' "De Trippin' To Your School."

A large group of women really showed up with a dance routine to "Jerkfreak" directed by Karen Davis and choreographed by Diane Fraunholz. The kickboard routine done to Gary Myrick's "Party Girl" was choreographed by Valene Brown. Deanna Barrett guided her group to the Rolling Stones' "Tops" for the float routine. A duet by Kim Doll and Diane Fraunholz to "The Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" contributed to the specialty routines along with Korinn Kochel, Darcy Resenius and Carla Avila dancing to "Jailhouse Rock." The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on ten staves. The notation is in a cursive, historical style, likely from a 17th or 18th-century manuscript. It includes various notes, rests, and bar lines, with some text written above and below the staves. The handwriting is somewhat faded and the paper appears aged.

Winning Was The Goal

for the 1982 Freshmen Basketball team under the direction of Coach Woods. The Frosh Pokes were victorious against San Ramon Wolves and the Foothill Falcons. Coach Woods stated "most of the players were previously experienced."

The Pokes' season started with a graceful win over Monte Vista.

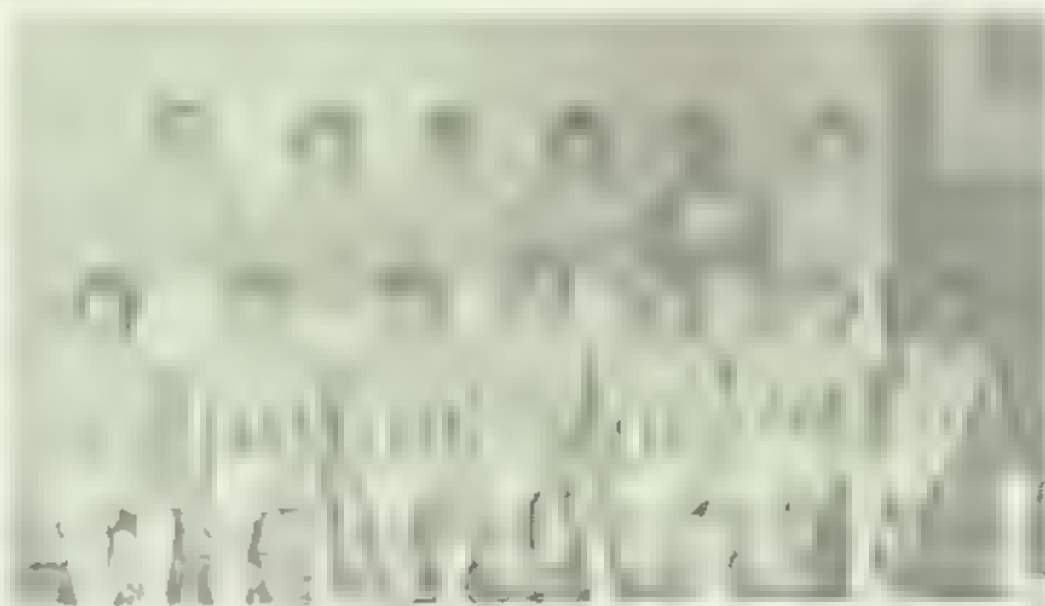

Outstanding players, center Todd Hogan, point J. Williams, and forward David Garcia helped score points for the Cowboys. Late in the season the Pokes suffered a loss to Amador, but came back and won their final games. In the crushing game against Granada, the Pokes put the Maladors in their grave with a 72-54 score.

Coach Woods felt that the promising Freshmen Basketball team will bring Livermore a league championship in the years to come.

Grasping the Season

The wrestling season is a time of intense competition and hard work. Wrestlers train every day, perfecting their techniques and building their strength. The season is filled with challenges, but it is also a time of great achievement. Wrestlers who persevere through the season will emerge as champions.

Putting Around

By [Name]

It's the quietest of strokes, the most delicate of touches, and the most crucial of moments in the game. The putt. The putt. The putt. It's the putt that can win or lose a hole, a match, or even a tournament. And it's the putt that can be the most frustrating of strokes, the most elusive of shots, and the most difficult to master. But for those who have mastered it, the putt is the most satisfying of strokes, the most rewarding of shots, and the most beautiful of moments in the game.

The LHS golf team, despite last year's disappointing season record, was full of hope for an improvement. First year coach Kevin Gunn, at the beginning of the season said that this year's team had much more depth.

Maintaining a Sense of Pride

As a coach, you want to help your players maintain a sense of pride in their team and in themselves. This is a key to long-term success in any sport. One way to do this is by setting high standards for your players and holding them accountable for their actions. Another way is by providing them with positive feedback and encouragement when they do well.

Remember, the goal is to help your players develop a strong sense of pride in their team and in themselves. This will help them to stay motivated and focused, even when things get tough.

Serving
Up a Storm

The H. Men's Tennis team has been very successful this year. All through the season they have been winning matches. They have won the regional tournament and are now in the state tournament. They have also won the national tournament.

The T. Men's Tennis team has also been very successful. They have won the regional tournament and are now in the state tournament. They have also won the national tournament.

The W. Men's Tennis team has also been very successful. They have won the regional tournament and are now in the state tournament. They have also won the national tournament.

The S. Men's Tennis team has also been very successful. They have won the regional tournament and are now in the state tournament. They have also won the national tournament.

Striving For A Successful Season,

despite early losses, the LHS Men's Varsity Baseball team maintained a positive attitude and enthusiasm to carry them through the season.

contributing skill and sportsmanship, the team performed with determination.

The squad looked promising all season with the consistent batting of Chuck Varney and the strong pitching of Randy Johnson. The team first year coach Ron Hawkins, the LHS Junior Varsity Baseball team held high expectations for success in league play

The 1982 season started with a crack of the bat win over De Lasle 13-1

In pre season practice the 19 member team looked strong. The returning juniors, pitcher David Stockman, right field Rich Delgado, second base Travis Loeffler, third base Jeff Murray and first base Ed Governor contributed to the positive outlook of the team.

Pitching was a strong point with David Stockman, consistently delivering the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age is expected to increase by 1.5 billion (United Nations 1994).

There is a growing awareness of the need to provide a better quality of life for children in the world. The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (1989) has been signed by 112 countries, and the United Nations Development Programme (1990) has produced a list of indicators to monitor progress towards the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children'.

One of the indicators is 'the proportion of children who are malnourished'. This is defined as 'the proportion of children who are underweight for their age and sex'. The World Health Organization (1990) has estimated that 15% of children under 5 years of age are malnourished in the world.
